

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM GEORGETOWN

Social Party at Tenleytown Given by Silver Star Lodge

Choirmaster Smith Enters Upon His New Duties on Sunday—Marriage of Miss Proctor to Mr. Sparshott.

A Daisy Social and box party was given last night at Good Templar Hall on the Belt Road, Tenleytown, by the members of Silver Star Lodge. About 150 were present, among whom was Grand Chief Templar Sylvester W. Russell, who delivered an interesting address. An excellent program was rendered, the participants being members of the lodge. A vocal solo was sung by Miss Dorothy Thompson, recitation, by Miss Irene Shupp; vocal solo, Miss Maude Pinder; chorus, by "The Boys," vocal duet, by the Misses Thompson; address, by Mr. Alexander J. Yowell, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Jane Clements. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. S. Frederick Smith, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., will enter upon his duty as choirmaster of St. John's Episcopal Church, on O Street, next Sunday, he having succeeded Mr. R. L. McCall, who resigned several days ago. Mr. McCall has gone to New York city to accept the position of choirmaster of one of the Presbyterian churches there.

Columbus Heffner, a farmer of Montgomery county, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Policeman Englehart for intoxication. Heffner is an old offender, and is arrested as often as two and three times a week on the same charge. Yesterday, while under the influence of liquor, he sold a wagon-load of farm products for $1.50.

Miss Hattie Proctor and Mr. William Sparshott were married on Wednesday evening at the Congress Street M. P. Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John D. Kinzer, pastor of the church.

John D. Croissant and Galen L. Tait, trustees, have sold to Henry A. Straub lot 26, block 2, in American University Park, for $500, and to Henry L. Manly lot 25, block 12, for $500, in the same subdivision.

William Wheatley has sold to James W. Martin part of lot 14, block 3, in Friendship and Mount Airy subdivision, of Tenleytown. The sale was made by Thomas J. Giles.

THE BUREAU OF COMMERCE.

Representative Hepburn Appoints His White House Conferees.

Representative Hepburn, chairman of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, this morning appointed Messrs. Fletcher, Mann, Adamson and Richardson of Alabama as a committee to accompany him to the White House and get the President's views as to the bureau he desires to be incorporated in the bill creating a Department of Commerce, which is now pending before Chairman Hepburn's committee.

It is not improbable that the bill will go over until next session and be reported to the House during the days of December.

FUNERAL OF MR. M'KERICHER

Services Held at His Late Residence This Afternoon.

The funeral of Mr. Alexander Steele McKericher was held at his late residence, 625 Seventh Street southwest, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Rev. Dr. Skellinger, pastor of the Sixth Street Presbyterian Church, officiated. Members of Lebanon Lodge, No. 7, F. A. M., of which the deceased was a member since 1883, participated in the services. Interment was made in the family lot at Glenwood Cemetery.

The following served as pallbearers: Messrs. James Hally, Andrew Glass, John Brown, A. H. Stevenson, Davis, and James Kerr.

Fell From a Street Car.

About 8 o'clock last night Mary Rollins, colored, twenty-three years of age, living at 1549 Park Street northwest, while alighting from a moving car of the Capital Traction Company, near the corner of Twelfth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue northwest fell and was slightly injured about her right side and face. BOY SUBJECT OF HOLD-UP.

Two Negroes Meet a Lad on the Street and Take His Money.

News of a daring hold-up and brutal assault reached the Ninth precinct police station early this morning when Earl Harper, a fifteen-year-old boy, living at 1210 D Street northeast, entered the stationhouse and, with tears in his eyes, told how he had been approached by two negroes at the Coliseum about 11 o'clock last night and carried bodily to the Eastern Branch, where they took all the small change he possessed, after which they brutally assaulted him.

According to the lad's story he met the two negroes shortly after 11 o'clock last night while on his way home after having attended the races at the Coliseum. Despite the fact that the streets in that section of the city are poorly lighted, young Harper was sure he could identify the men should they be caught. After hearing the boy's story Lieutenant Daley detailed four policemen to work on the case, and every effort will be made to secure their arrest.

Persons residing in the vicinity where the assault took place have been interviewed by the police, but as yet nothing has been learned.

Capital Boardman, Chief of Detectives, detailed one of the detectives from Headquarters to work in co-operation with the Ninth precinct officials in hopes of solving the affair.

Pay of Marine Band Musicians.

Mr. L. P. Mitchell, Assistant Comptroller of the Treasury, held today that a musician of the Marine Band retired under the act of February 14, 1885, should be paid three-fourths the pay of his grade as fixed by law from time to time notwithstanding it may not be the same as it was when he was retired.

WORE STARS AND STRIPES.

Miss Olive Nolan Observes Flag Day in Truly Patriotic Style.

One of the most conspicuous participants in the Flag Day exercises at the Hamilton school today was Miss Olive Nolan, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. John T. Nolan, manager of the telegraph department at the B. & O. station. Miss Nolan, in honor of the occasion, went to the school on the Bladensburg Road on a gaily bedecked wheel, and wore a costume of the Stars and Stripes. The young lady has also had the honor of having an essay selected to be sent to the St. Louis Exposition.
